DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114.

Applicant's submission filed on 27 December 2006 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

On 27 December 2007, Applicant amended claims 8-10 and 12.

Claims 8-10 12-15 and 18 are pending and will be examined.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 8-10, 12-15 and 18 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 8-10, 12-15 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Walker (US 6,119,100), issued 12 September 2000.

As per claim 8, Walker discloses methods comprising receiving a discount price transition table from a server via a network (Figs. 1 and 2) said discount price transition table indicates dates and discount prices (see Fig. 4, and related text, for example), wherein the dates includes at least one date after a current date, and each discount price corresponds to each date, such that the dates extend over a plurality of days and are displayed on the discount price transition table to be viewed by a purchaser (see at least Col. 1, lines 37-48, Col. 4, lines 14-18);

making a purchase reservation to the server via a network, the purchase reservation specifying a future date and a desired purchase price, among the dates indicated in the received discount price transition table (see, for example, at least Col. 8, lines 43-56); and receiving allocation of the product, when a predetermined quantity of the product has not been sold out when the reservation sales time is reached (see, for example, at least Col. 1, lines 27-35).

Claim 9 is rejected on the same grounds as claim 8.

Claim 10 is rejected on the same grounds as claim 8.

Claim 12 is rejected on the same grounds as claim 8.

As per claim 13, Walker discloses:

selling the product at one of the discounted prices when the sales quantity is less than the predetermined quantity (see, for example, at least Col. 2, lines 43-53); and selling the product at a non-discounted price when the sales quantity is equal to or more than the predetermined quantity (see list price, as in Col. 1, lines 56-67) .

As per claim 14, Walker discloses:

setting one of the discounted prices as a minimum discounted price (see, for example, at least references to tiers, as in Col. 2, lines 15-26); and maintaining the minimum discounted price as a selling price of the product when the sales quantity is less than the predetermined quantity (e.g., Col. 9, lines 37-48).

As per claim 15, Walker discloses:

allocating the product to the purchase reservation when the sales quantity is less than the predetermined quantity (see, for example, at least Fig. 7 and related text concerning quantities).

As per claim 18, Walker discloses:

canceling the purchase reservation if the sales quantity is equal to or greater than the predetermined quantity when the selling price reaches the desired price (as in tiers, as in Col. 9, lines 37-65).
